2007 PRESIDENTIAL $1 COIN
PRODUCTS

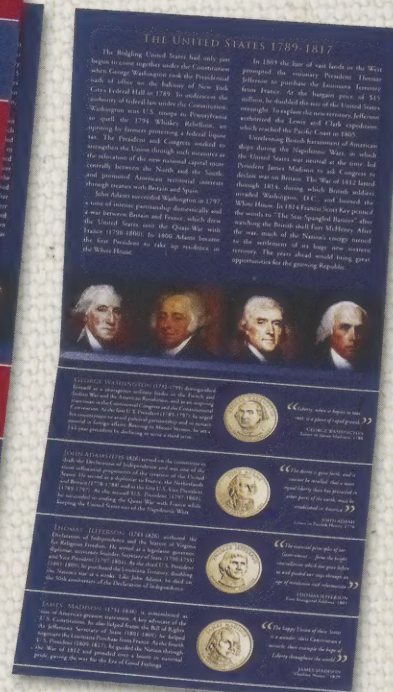

George Washington, Father of our Country; John Adams, outspoken advocate of the Revolution; Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence; and James Madison, Father of the Constitution – men whose contributions shaped the foundation of our Nation – are honored in these stunning 2007 Presidential $1 Coin products. These coins feature larger, more dramatic artwork, including a striking image of Liberty on the reverse, and are made even more special with edge inscriptions of “2007,” “E Pluribus Unum,” “In God We Trust” and the mint mark.

THE 2007 DOLLAR COINS

By the time the Founding Fathers had signed the Declaration of Independence, the United States was a young nation. The first President, George Washington, was elected in 1789. He led the Continental Congress during the Revolutionary War and signed the Constitution in 1787. He was the first President to live in the White House. He was also the first President to be re-elected.

The first of the Founding Fathers to sign the Declaration of Independence was John Adams. He was a lawyer, diplomat, and statesman. He was the second President of the United States from 1796 to 1800. He was also the first President to be re-elected.

Thomas Jefferson was the third President of the United States from 1800 to 1809. He was a lawyer, diplomat, and statesman. He was the first President to be elected to two terms. He was also the first President to be re-elected.

James Madison was the fourth President of the United States from 1809 to 1817. He was a lawyer, diplomat, and statesman. He was the first President to be elected to two terms. He was also the first President to be re-elected.
